

KIRSTY E SMITH CLOSE ENCOUNTERS OF A FRILLIP MOOLOG KIND ARTIST TALK BOOK YOUR PLACE TODAY

FRIENDS & STRANGERS & BOTH

At 6pm, Thursday 29th October, Kirsty E. Smith will present an Artist Talk. You can book places now; please e-mail kirsty@frillipmoolog.co.uk

Kirsty E. Smith makes sculptural works in response to an ongoing fascination with her surroundings. For Close Encounters of a Frillip Moolog Kind she has taken inspiration from vintage sci-fi films and used textiles and techniques more common to dance costumes and showbiz extravaganza.

Her intention is to create work which resonates on a deeply emotive level and which acts as a vehicle to reconnect with "another place" deep in our subconscious. Frillip Moolog is the name Kirsty has given to such a place.

Close Encounters of a Frillip Moolog Kind can be experienced in the G1 main exhibition space, Solihull Arts Complex until Thursday 14th November.
